

Human Science Institute Conference, September 8-10, 2016 – Logistics

Schedule

Registration: Check in at the conference site: “Officer’s Club” (this is about 3 minutes walk from the University guest house) begins at 4 p.m. on Thursday. There will be conference handouts and information and HSI Board members will be there to greet you and answer any questions. The evening program begins promptly at 5 p.m.

Thursday: The evening program and reception begins at 5 p.m. with an important introduction and collaborative discussion and ends at 7 p.m. so you can go out for dinner, if you wish (a list of nearby restaurants, etc. will be provided).

Friday: We begin promptly at 9 a.m. on Friday morning, closing with a reception from 5:30 – 6:30.

Saturday: We begin again promptly at 9 a.m. and close with a final integrative discussion and reception from 5:00 to 7 p.m.

Please note, if you are staying at the University Guest house breakfast is provided. We will have snacks/beverages for breaks and provide lunch on both Friday and Saturday. Dinner both nights is on your own. We hope you will get groups together and have a good time in Salt Lake City. The light rail system “TRAX” stops near the University Guest House and so getting around should be no problem. (see below)

Staying at the University Guest House

HSI has reserved a block of rooms for conference presenters and attendees. The special rate is $120.00 per night and includes breakfast at the Guest House. You can check out the accommodations at www.universityguesthouse.com.

To book your room: Call Toll Free – 888-416-4075 or the local number – 801-587-1000. When booking your room be sure to state that you are attending the HSI Compassion, Connection and Response-Ability conference so that they will give you the special rate.

Rooms must be booked by no later than Thursday, August 25th, 2016 to receive this discount.

Individuals are responsible for rooms and tax and convenience store purchases, any incidentals charges and any damage to rooms or hotel facilities.

Getting to the University Guest House

By Air: Book your flight into Salt Lake City International Airport. From there you can either rent a car, take the shuttle, taxi or Trax. Salt Lake City International Airport has many ground transportation options; however the easiest way to travel from the airport to the University of Utah with heavy luggage is by shuttle or taxi.

Shuttle: You can make a reservation ahead of time with Express shuttle either online or by phone (1-800-397-0773). The Express shuttle costs around $18. When you arrive at the airport, check in at the Express shuttle desk in either Terminal 1 (across from baggage carousel 3), or Terminal 2 (across from baggage carousel 8).

Taxi: Taxi service is also available 24 hours a day. The cost is around $25. You can call a cab at the ground transportation information desk or outside of baggage claim at the taxi kiosk.

Trax or Bus: You may also take public transportation by using the Utah Transit Authority (UTA).

From the airport, you can take the light rail train called Trax, which will take you to the University.

1. Board the Green Line (towards West Valley Central) at the airport.
2. At COURTHOUSE STATION transfer to the Red Line (towards the U. Medical Center).
3. Exit at the FORT DOUGLAS station on the Red Line.

The cost for a one-way ticket is around $2.50. Visit www.rideuta.com for route and schedule information.

By Car: If you are driving to the University of Utah, the University Guest House is located in the Historic Fort Douglas section of the University of Utah Campus. We are just south of the Health Science Campus and directly east of the 2002 Olympic Legacy Bridge. The Guest House is adjacent to the Fort Douglas stop on the Trax Line.
